

KILGOUR INKSTAND

History:

Jessie Kilgour was one of the founder members of Perth Ladies; she worked in a baker's shop in the town, and is remembered playing in the 40s and 50s, "she was a cheery person, and she was like a wee box on legs and never stopped laughing. Her shots were always straight down the middle, and she was demon at the putting." After her death, the Kilgour Inkstand was presented in her memory in 1971.
